

Your Story

A photograph of a wedding ceremony taking place indoors near large windows. A bride in a white off-the-shoulder dress holds a large bouquet of colorful flowers. A celebrant in a purple suit stands next to her, holding a pink card. The groom, seen from the back, is in a dark suit. In the foreground, the backs of several guests' heads are visible. To the right, there is a large, elaborate floral arrangement with pink and purple flowers.

Beautifully Told

Creating legal, heartfelt ceremonies across
Cork, Kerry, Tipperary & Waterford.

Hello - I'm Brian Twomey

I'm an accredited wedding celebrant and solemniser based in Cork, creating legal, heartfelt ceremonies across Cork, Kerry, Tipperary & Waterford.

With a law degree (BCL), I combine legal precision with a storyteller's heart. That means your ceremony will be beautifully written and completely stress-free.

My role isn't to perform or take the spotlight. It's to hold the space, guide you through, and tell your story in a way that feels natural and true to you. Couples often say, "It felt like he'd known us for years." That's exactly the feeling I aim for.

WEDDING CELEBRANT & SOLEMNISER

Because Your Ceremony should be the heart of your day

Legal Certainty

As an accredited solemniser with a background in law, every ceremony I conduct is both beautiful and legally flawless. You can relax knowing every detail is covered.

Personal Storytelling

Each ceremony is written around your journey — your humour, your love, your voice.

Calm Confidence

From late arrivals to missing rings, I've seen it all — and I'll keep things seamless, so you can stay fully present.

“Guests assumed Brian was a family friend — that's how personal and warm the ceremony felt.”

“Guests said they’d never seen a ceremony like it
— full of warmth and meaning.”

What couples like You say...

"People thought Brian was a family friend — that's how personal and warm the ceremony felt."

Maeve & Darren

"Brian is such a calm person — he put everyone at ease and had the crowd laughing and cheering. Guests said it was the nicest and most personal ceremony they'd ever attended."

Freya & Ian

"He created and conducted the ceremony of our dreams! It was personal, thoughtful, and full of craic — everyone was smiling from start to finish."

Kate & David

"From the first meeting, he reassured us and made everything simple. His ceremony was magical, inclusive, and full of warmth — it felt like he'd known us a lifetime."

"Our guests haven't stopped talking about it — there wasn't a dry eye in the room."

An Investment in the Heart of Your Day

Every ceremony I create is unique.

My fee reflects the time, care, and attention that goes into making your ceremony legally sound, deeply personal, and beautifully delivered.

A €200 deposit secures your date and my full commitment to you.

The remaining balance is due before or on the day of your wedding.

Travel costs vary depending on location — I'll always confirm them upfront.

Limited Availability: I take on a small number of weddings each year so that every couple receives my full attention. Early booking is recommended.

“Value Beyond the Day Itself”

A photograph of a wedding ceremony. A groom in a tan suit and blue tie is holding hands with a bride in a white dress. An officiant in a light blue suit stands behind them, smiling. They are in front of a large window with green foliage outside.

“Worth every cent — our guests said it was the most meaningful ceremony they'd ever attended.”

Let's Create Your Ceremony

Your wedding day deserves a ceremony that feels completely like you — personal, heartfelt, and seamless.

I'd love to hear your ideas and see if I'm the right fit for you. Our first chat is relaxed and easy — just a conversation about what matters most to you both.

I work closely with venues, photographers, musicians, and planners to make sure every detail flows naturally — so all you need to do is be present, together, in the moment.
